

Getting Ready to Write

- Read the fact sheet about B.J.'s bad day.
- Think about the lead you planned on the "Getting Ready to Write" graphic organizer. In the box to the left of the fact that corresponds to your lead, write the number 1.
- Think about the method of organization you noted on the graphic organizer. Then number the rest of the facts about B.J. in the order in which you might use them in your newspaper story. Be sure the order fits your method of organization. You do not have to include every fact.
- Check to be sure you've included all of the 5 Ws.
