

How Do News Stories Come to Be?

- Select a news story from the examples of different kinds of stories your group gathered in Lesson 1.
- Consider these questions:
  - How might the reporter have gotten the idea for the story?
  - Where could the reporter have found information for the story?
  - How do you suppose the story got from the reporter's head into its final form?
- Write the headline of the story in the center of the graphic organizer.
- Jot answers to the questions on the graphic organizer.
