- Consider the first step in the reporter's checklist.
- Decide at which step of the five-step process it would be done, write it on the appropriate step in the graphic organizer "Five Steps to a Successful Story," and check it off on the reporter's checklist.
- Repeat until you have classified all ten steps under steps included in the graphic organizer "Five Steps to a Successful Story."
- Compare your completed graphic organizer with those of other groups, and share ideas about why you classified the ten steps as you did.
